EU project manager

We are looking for you:

The Network of Associations of Local Authorities of South-East Europe (NALAS) needs your expertise to develop its services and activities relating to cooperation with the European Union (EU). With its sixteen member organisations, NALAS represents around 9,000 municipalities in South-East Europe. NALAS offers its members advice, support and knowledge transfer on the topics of wastewater and waste management, energy efficiency, urban planning, decentralisation, financial management, organisational development and administrative reform. It also promotes cooperation between its members and supports the implementation of regional strategies and transnational cooperation. One of NALAS's aims is to increase the visibility of municipalities and their concerns at the EU institutions. It wishes to offer its members professional support in acquiring EU funds and in designing, applying for and implementing EU-funded projects, and to build sustainable capacity for handling these processes.

Your tasks will involve:

- Identifying funding opportunities for NALAS and its members from EU promotional programmes
- Creating a corresponding funding database
- Developing project proposals and providing support for the preparation of project applications
- Providing training on acquiring EU funding and on developing and implementing EU-funded projects
- Designing and implementing a communications and lobbying strategy to raise the visibility of NALAS at EU institutions

Your profile:

- University degree in engineering, economics, administration or social sciences
- Several years' professional experience in designing, applying for and managing EU projects
- Specialist knowledge in one of the following areas: waste and wastewater management, energy efficiency or renewable energies, administrative reform, fiscal decentralisation, integrated urban planning
- Preferably experience working in a municipality in Europe
- Strong team player with excellent communication skills
- Fluent business English

What we offer:

- A varied and interesting job with a high level of responsibility in an international environment
- The opportunity to cooperate with other development cooperation organisations
- Preparatory measures for your assignment abroad
- A local employment contract as an integrated expert for an initial period of two years, with an option to extend
- Attractive monthly salary top-ups and social security benefits in addition to your local salary

Note: This job advert is up-to-date and there is no deadline for applications
